

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE LIBRARY

3 5197 00148951 0

KEEPING POSTED ON
PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

VOLUMES I - IV

1954 - 1958

JSC

378.757

P92K

v.1-4

Presbyterian Collegē
James H. Thomason Library
Clinton, South Carolina 29325

Clinton, South Carolina

Volume 1

April, 1955

Number:

The Rev. Harry K. Hollings of Marietta, Ga., has succeeded the Rev. William B. Ward of Spartanburg, S. C., as chairman of the Presbyterian College Board of Trustees.

Dr. Ward recently resigned from the Spartanburg First Presbyterian Church to accept a call to the First Church of Richmond, Va., and he gave up his pastoral post upon his decision to move outside the supporting Synod of Georgia and South Carolina.

Dr. Stodan, elected
1994, Westminster, Colo.

How do you know you have a good one?

Meet the Faculty

Neil G. Whitelaw, Professor of Physics

Neil G. Whitelaw is an Associate Professor of Physics and the Director of the Center for Space and Earth Science Studies at the University of New Hampshire.

He received his B.S. from the University of New Hampshire in 1978.

He received his M.S. from the University of New Hampshire in 1980.

He received his Ph.D. from the University of New Hampshire in 1983.

He is currently a member of the American Physical Society.

He is currently a member of the American Astronomical Society.

He is currently a member of the American Meteorological Society.

He is currently a member of the American Geophysical Union.

He is currently a member of the American Chemical Society.

He is currently a member of the American Mathematical Society.

He is currently a member of the American Psychological Association.

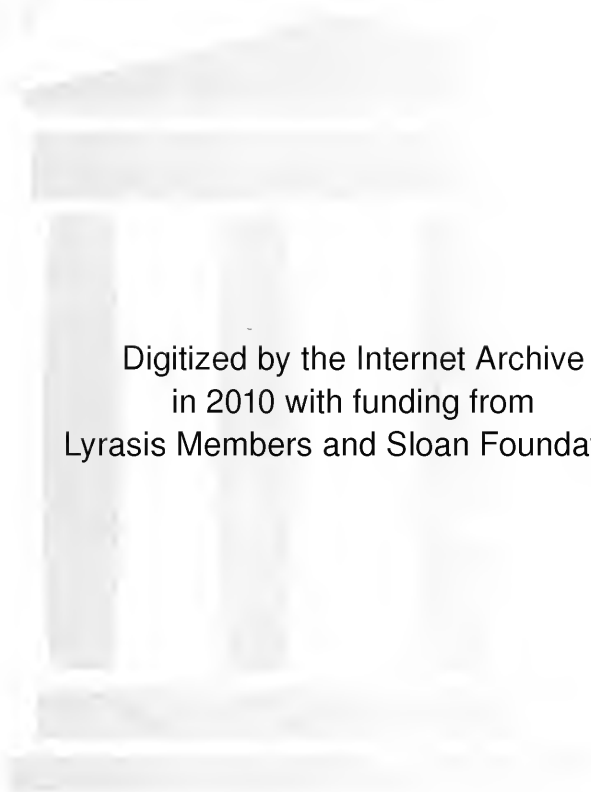

He is currently a member of the American Sociological Association.

He is currently a member of the American Anthropological Association.

He is currently a member of the American Linguistic Association.

He is currently a member of the American Music Association.

He is currently a member of the American Dance Association.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2010 with funding from Lyrasis Members and Sloan Foundation

